STATE ROAD WILL

REACH STEPNEY CENTER

A good macadam road will exist between this city and Stepney Center, before winter. State Highway Commissioner Macdonald has awarded the duty of making profiles and plans for three miles of state highway between Long Hill and Stepney Center to McElroy & Kershaw, the well known civil engineers. The road lies along the Newtown turnpike. The profiles for the three miles between this city and Long Hill have recently been completed by the same engineers.

LONG HAIRIED COWBOY CORN

DOCTOR MYSTIFIES POLICE

There is speculation as to the identity of George Sackett, who was arrested by Officer Dietz at noon. Sackett has long, black hair which falls nearly to his shoulders. He wears a prince Albert coat, a broad brimmed hat, tight fitting trousers and cowhide boots. He was drunk and sitting in the middle of the sidewalk on Golden Hill street. The only thing of value found on him was a pair of scissors. He told Capt. Hunt he is a cowboy and later assured Officer Chris Finnegan he is a corn doctor.

INVESTIGATORS EXPECTING

FACTS FROM ACTING MAYOR

The special committee to enquire whether the Charities Department needs investigating spent two hours on the books of the department yesterday. The committee will meet next week to decide upon a report to the common council. The committee is said to believe that facts bearing on the department may be placed in their possession by Acting Mayor Clifford B. Wilson, the father of the inquiry.

SHOES BIKE THIEF WORE MAKE

HIM PROBABLE BURGLAR

Thomas Truppi, who was arrested early in the week by Officer Gregory for stealing a bicycle was brought from the jail this morning where he was serving 30 days and held for the Superior court to answer to a charge of breaking into the shoe shop of Nick Malane, 1972 Main street, and stealing six pairs of shoes. Truppi had new shoes on when he was arrested. He said they were jail made shoes given to him by the officials of a reformatory in Newark where he had been a prisoner. The shoes have been identified as Malane's.

SCHOONER ASHORE

AT NEW LONDON.

New London, May 21.—The four-masted schooner, Mary Adelaide Randall, bound from Norfolk, Va., to this port with a cargo of coal is ashore at the mouth of the harbor to-day and is pounding heavily on the rocks. Wrecking lights surround the vessel and an attempt will be made this afternoon to pull her off. The ship is one of the largest that visits this port, being 132 feet in length. It ran ashore in the early hours of the morning while endeavoring to make the harbor.

CONEY ISLANDERS

JUMP ON MAYOR

MCLELLAN

New York, May 21.—Mayor McClellan's troubles are piling up because he has suddenly decided that the Sunday laws must be enforced at the seaside resorts. Owners of resorts in Coney Island has applied for an injunction restraining the Mayor from interfering.

Fred Thompson, who runs Coney's big Luna, has printed an advertisement suddenly deciding that the Sunday laws must be enforced at the seaside resorts. Owners of resorts in Coney Island has applied for an injunction restraining the Mayor from interfering.

PRESIDENT TAFT RETURNS.

(Special from United Press.)

Washington, May 21.—President Taft returned to Washington at 10:40 to-day from his trip to Petersburg and Charlotte.

GREAT STORM

THREATENS NEW ENGLAND COAST

An east wind that had on its March clothes kicked up a nasty sea in the Sound to-day and frail craft were lashed about like feathers thrown to the winds. The steamer Victor, running between this city and Port Jefferson, had a tussle with waves and winds and finally shoved her nose against her mooring place, the old Rosedale dock, about an hour behind her time. Captain George Tooker said the sea was fussy and the wind contrary. As the Victor is a side wheeler she did not have the easy time mastering the difficulties that the Park City would which is the regular steamer of the line and of the twin screw variety.

The Park City will renew her daily visits to this port beginning Monday next, leaving Port Jefferson daily at 8:30 a. m. and arriving at the foot of Fairfield avenue at 10 a. m.

To-day was so much like early March that scarcely anyone felt comfortable unless he returned to winter clothing. It was one of those cold, gray days so common these later years in this climate and unless one kept moving there was little pleasure in being about. The few daring local celebrities who appeared a few days ago in their new spring straws had the good sense to-day to return to their early spring headgear. Earlaps and ulsters would have been appropriate at almost any time to-day.

Local physicians say that owing to the changeable weather an unusual number of heavy colds and incipient pneumonia cases are reported about town. Interest in out door pastimes is lagging because of the continued cold weather and the baseball magnates are feeling the effects in a loss of revenue.

The weather man to-day sent out word that rain was on the taps for to-night but nothing of a cheery nature is contained in that information for he sees no break in the cold spell which appears to have New England in its grip.

Storm warnings were sent out by the Weather Bureau.

STRANGE WOMAN AND CHILD

DISAPPEARS KIDNAPPING FEARED

(Special from United Press.) New York, May 21.—A general alarm has been spread throughout this city and the outlying towns where a vigilant search is being made for an unknown woman believed to have kidnapped Grace, the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Terry of Corona, Queens County. Mrs. Terry was only slightly acquainted with the girl, whom she said gave the name of Annie Spuzi or Spoon of Port Washington. According to the story the woman came to the Terry home while the mother was absent and after preparing a meal and exchanging her worn out garments for the good clothing of Mrs. Terry she persuaded Grace to accompany her on a walk. Neither has been seen since.

THESE TWO MAY HAVE

TERMINATED LIFE TOGETHER

(Special from United Press.) Keene, N. H., May 21.—Fearing a suicide pact, the police of this city to-day are seeking Thomas Smithers, 35, and Nora Emerson, 18, who have disappeared from here and are thought to have eloped together. Smithers is alleged to have recently tried suicide here after being charged with bigamy by his first wife. The Emerson girl was his second wife and it is believed they decided to do away with themselves.

RAILROAD'S WEAVER KILLED.

(Special from United Press.)

New Haven, May 21.—While at work in the local railroad yards early to-day Patrick Gilhuley, a coal weigher employed by the New Haven road, stepped from the rear of an engine in front of another and sustained injuries which resulted in his death a few hours later. He is survived by a wife and four children.

HATTER KILLED.

(Special from United Press.)

Danbury, May 21.—James Foley, aged 55, a hatter, was found lying wounded in the railroad yards early to-day and died before he could be moved to the hospital. He is employed in Newburgh, N. Y., and it is believed he was struck by a freight train some time during the night while attempting to board the train. He is survived by a wife.

CLUE TO BOY'S IDENTITY.

(Special from United Press.)

South Norwalk, May 21.—A clue to the identity of the boy who was found lying dead alongside the railroad track near Darien last week, the police in this city received a letter from the Police department of Providence asking for information concerning William R. Burke of that city who left his home a couple of weeks ago. Burke's description corresponds in many respects to that of the body found here.

SUIT IN INTEREST OF OLDER MEMBERS OF KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
Judge Patrick Kane, Henry P. Cleary and other members of the K. of C. in this city are interested in a suit of a friendly nature which has been begun to ascertain the status of the so-called "old men" in the Knights of Columbus, who want the Supreme court to determine the ownership of a fund now amounting to $800,000. Daniel Colwell of New Haven, national secretary of the order, has been served with an injunction issued by Judge Howard J. Curtis, and Colwell is summoned to answer in the Superior court in Fairfield county at the June term. Meanwhile Colwell is debarred from using any portion of the reserve and mortuary fund so-called. A suit of a somewhat similar nature was decided adversely to the plaintiff, one Ryan, owing to a technicality and it is the belief of Judge Kane that under the present proceedings a satisfactory decision will be reached.

Judge Kane believes facts will show that the plaintiffs have such an interest in the $651,000 accumulated by the members of the organization prior to the adoption of what is now known in the order as the stop-rate as will entitle them and all others (members when the new plan was adopted, in 1902) to have applied to such members on their assessments as they each reach the age of 60 years, their proportionate share of said fund. This assessment plan of the new organization of stop-rate system has been so burdensome to the members as they reach that age as to cause them much hardship and various methods have been attempted to provide for the reduction in the assessments of such members, but as all proved to be at the expense of the younger members no success attended the efforts.

CLASS INITIATION K. OF C. SUNDAY

A meeting of John F. Rogers Council, K. of C., will be held to-night at the chapter house on Main street to perfect arrangements for the class initiation to take place at Eagles' Hall on Sunday. All members who have applications for membership to offer must do so to-night as it will be their last opportunity to present the same. Great interest has been taken in the event which promises to surpass anything in local K. of C. circles. Large delegations from sister councils out of the city will attend and the capacity of Eagles' hall where the degrees are to be conferred will be taxed.

BOY WHO TOOK POISON, RECOVERING

Bernard Fierman, the 3-year-old boy of 177 Warren street who ate enough strychnine tablets on Tuesday to kill three men, was reported at St. Vincent's hospital today as able to return to his parents in a few days.

To-morrow is the Day. Come to WOODLAND PARK.
